Jane bids for national award

By Jan Ross

 Comment

AWARD-WINNING businesswoman Jane Pickup is in line for another top honour.

Jane is managing director of Style Counsel Interiors, and won the Congleton Borough Business Person of the Year accolade.

Her company has been chosen as one of four finalists in the National Business Awards, sponsored by Orange.

Style Counsel Interiors is in the small to medium-sized Business of the Year category for the North West region.

The company was chosen as one of the finalists for its ability to demonstrate significant growth and innovation in its market sector, underpinned by strong financial performance.

Jane is also celebrating a highly commended status in the Credit Suisse Entrepreneur of the Year Award for exceptional vision, leadership and development of an owner-led business.
